Preface.

IN presenting to the Public, at the Solicitations of many of the Magistrates and others, a New Edition of "The Civil Division of the County of Dorset," the Editor begs to state, that in consequence of the many Alterations which have taken place since the Publication of the first Edition, it became necessary for the whole to be re-written, which has been done, and other Matters introduced throughout. The same method has however been pursued in the present, as in the former Edition: and in order to render the Work more generally useful and easy to be consulted, in addition to the Indexes, he has prefixed a Table of the Contents. It would be superfluous for the Editor to enlarge upon the probable Advantages of a Work of this kind as a Book of reference; but he may be permitted to hope that it will be found useful, not only to the Magistrates, whose attention to the good of the Community requires that they should have all the Information and Assistance which can be afforded them, but also to every Public Officer, Parish Officer, Land Owner, and principal Inhabitant of the County.

Dorchester, June, 1833.

Introduction.

THE SHIRE, or County of Dorset, is a maritime County, situated in the South West of England, between $50^{\circ}.30'$. and $51^{\circ}.6'$. North Lat. and $1^{\circ}.58'$. and $30^{\circ}.11'$. West Long. bounded on the North by Somersetshire and Wiltshire, on the West by Devonshire and part of Somersetshire, on the East by Hampshire, and Southward 'tis all Sea Coast; is in length from North to South about 35m. and in breadth from East to West 55m. and is nearly 160m. in circumference, according to the latest authorities: it appears to be 1005 square statute miles, or 643,200 acres; wherefore the number of inhabitants in each square mile, containing 640 acres, according to the last population returns (1831) averages 158 persons.

The County is divided into 9 Divisions; 35 Hundreds; 22 Liberties, and 8 Boroughs (see p. 27); also into 241 Parishes; 41 parochial Chapelries; 5 extra-parochial Places, and 3 Tithings and Hamlets,* which maintain their own poor; and it contains 20 Towns; 404 Tithings; 253 Vills; 244 Hamlets, and 617 Farms and Lands.

The Names of the principal Civil Ministerial Officers, and Magistrates, having jurisdiction and authority within the County, and the subordinate Officers under them, with their salaries, fees, and allowances, are given, and Lists thereof digested and arranged, according to the method adopted by Mr. Justice Blackstone, commencing from different periods, and continued to the present time, under separate heads; with the dates and every other matter relative to these appointments.

* These three Places belong to the Parishes of Canford Magna and Beer Regis.

The 9 DIVISIONS, above mentioned, were newly arranged at Midsummer Sessions, 1830, and this arrangement was carried into effect the 1st of September following, stats. 9 G. 4, c. 43, and 10 G. 4, c. 46. The number of the Divisions is the same as in the year 1740, (see p. 108), but the names are more agreeable to modern usage. These Divisions have been formed by a junction of the small Tithings and Places, and by a partition of the large Hundreds and Liberties, from one Division to another, as seemed most convenient and proper to be altered or changed; regard having been had to the distances of each Tithing and Place, in every Division, from the Town where special Sessions are held.* Part II. contains the Tithings only in each Hundred, Liberty, and Division; and Part IV. contains the Parishes and Places which maintain their own Poor in each of the New Divisions.

The 35 HUNDREDS, or some of them, have, for the convenience of the public, been severed; and such Hundreds are situate in two or more Divisions: therefore, in order to shew the extent of such alterations, and the number of Tithings, Parishes, and Places in each Division, a Synopsis is given, shewing all the Divisions, and the whole number of Tithings, Parishes, and Places, originally in the Old Divisions, and how the same are now disposed of in the New Divisions mentioned in Parts II. and IV. pp. 106 and 109.

The 22 LIBERTIES, or some of them, have been severed in the same manner as the Hundreds, and by the like authority; and the Synopsis shows the extent of the alterations, and where the Tithings, &c., are now placed—see Part II. p. 106.

* It has been remarked that to reform ancient customs which have been long associated with the occurrences of common life, is however, an inconvenient task. An instance of this occurs in Wales temp Hen. 3, 1535, for the ancient Cantresses and Commots were altered into Hundreds by commission under the Great Seal; the alteration met however with much difficulty, and, although extended periods were allowed for its taking effect, yet the new Counties and Hundreds exhibit more instances of distinct boundary, i. e. of Parishes, and Townships, not contiguous with the County or Hundred than do the ancient Counties: while the remembrance of the abolished Cantresses and Commots still occasionally creates some confusion.—See Prelim. Obs. to Pop. Abst. 1811.

THE 8 BOROUGHs have been placed in the same manner as the Hundreds, &c., and the Synopsis shews the alterations, and where these Boroughs now are.

THE 241 PARISHES are numbered and placed alphabetically, Part I. col. 2. These Parishes contain the precincts of the parochial Parish Church, and are primariæ Ecclesiæ, or Mother Church; originally the Kingdom, with reference to Civil Matters, was divided into Towns and Vills; and Parishes were a Division in reference to Ecclesiastical affairs only; the Common Law took no notice of Parishes, but as Vills, for all Parishes have, or had originally, Vills, though there are Parishes in this County where the Vill which retains the name of the Parish, is depopulated and the Church destroyed: these are noted where they occur. However in 1530, (22 Hen. 8, c. 12,) Parishes became Divisions, and are taken notice of in Civil matters. — Williams's Justice, 1. p. 587. — Freeman's Rep. This mixture of the Civil and Ecclesiastical Divisions has created great confusion; and Mr. Justice Blackstone observes, that "where the statute law have not the foundation of the common law to build on, what miserable shifts and lame expedients have from time to time been adopted, in order to patch up the flaws occasioned by this neglect." — Comm. 1, vol. p. 365.

THE 41 PAROCHIAL CHAPELRIES are also numbered, Part I. col. 3, and placed under the Parishes to which they belong. These Chapelries have the Liberties of Baptism and Sepulture, and have Chapelwardens; but they are not exempted from the visitation of the ordinary, nor are the Parishioners who resort thither, from the repairs of the Mother Church, especially if they bury there; for those Chapels generally belong to, and are as it were part of the Mother Church, and the Parishioners are obliged to go to the Mother Church, but not to the Chapel. — Rolls Abri. 289. The Chapels, not numbered, are Chapels of ease.

EXTRAPAROCHIAL Places are such as are out of any Parish, and are privileged and exempt from the duties of a Parish: heretofore there were lands in various parts of the Kingdom in the hands, probably, of irreligious and careless owners, situate in Forests and desert Places, and which for unsearchable reasons were never united to any Parish, and therefore continue to this day Extraparochial—Black. Comm. vol. 1, p. 113; and, it has been said, that these Places are usually found to have been the site of religious houses or of ancient castles, whose owners may have been supposed, in rude times, to have resisted any interference with their authority within the limits of their residence.—Pop. Abstracts, 1811. The 5 Places in Part 1, col. 2, claiming to be Extraparochial, are numbered, viz:—114, Hanford which anciently belonged to Tarrant Abbey, and the Glebe and Tithes of the Parish were possessed by that Abbey, and having passed through various hands is now in possession of the present owner.

No. 119.—Heringstone belonged to Farringdon Winterborne Parish, until the Vill of Farringdon became depopulated and the Church destroyed; and then a Chapel was built in Herringstone House, and consecrated, for divine service to be performed there.

No. 144.—Leweston belonged to Longburton Parish, which was in Sherborne Abbey. It now pays the Rates to Lillington Parish and the Land Tax to Holnest Chapelry.

No. 219.—Steepleton Preston (more properly Steepleton Iwerne*,) was anciently a distinct Parish, and maintained its own poor, but now the Vill is depopulated, and but one house remaining.

No. 279.—Woodyates West—formerly the Parsonage belonged to Tarrant Abbey, it is now united, and pays to Pentridge Parish; therefore every one of these places seem, very anciently, to have been distinct Parishes, or united as above mentioned. There are 3 other Places which maintain their own poor, viz:—Longfleet, a Tithing and Hamlet, and Parkstone a Hamlet, both in Canford Magna Parish, and Milborne Stileham Tithing, in Beer Regis Parish.

* Why and when this Parish had the addition of Preston the Editor has not been able to discover, except from Priest-town, which is synonymous with Steeple-town. He has kept to the names and spelling found in the ancient records, otherwise he is apprehensive, much confusion might arise to make any alteration in the present day.

THE 20 TOWNS enumerated and distinguished by stars, in Part I., have, or had, the same signification in Law as Vills, and include Boroughs and Common Towns. The Borough Towns which send Members to Parliament are now, by the Reform Act, 2 W. 4, c. 45, seven, (including Poole), and by a subsequent Act, 2 & 3 W. 4, c. 64, Sch. O, the Boundaries thereof are described,—p. 187. The other Boroughs are Blandford Forum and Corfe Castle, which formerly sent Members to Parliament; other Towns there are, viz., Beaminster, Cerne Abbas, Cranborne, Sherborne, Sturminster Newton, Stalbridge, and Wimborne Minster, which have privileges of MARKETS and Fairs,* and the remainder, Abbotsbury, Beer Regis, Evershot, Frampton, and Milton Abbas, had those privileges, but they are fallen into disuse and not kept, but all are equally Towns in Law.

THE 404 TITHINGS enumerated and distinguished by stars, Part I. col. 5; also in Part II. p. 110, are the same as anciently paid to the Land Tax: there are many other Tithings, where Tithingmen are appointed at the Court Leet, but the uniting of these took place very early.—See Observations, pp. 29, 36; Part I. p. 69 to 104; Part II. pp. 110 to 118; Part III. pp. 120 to 130. These Tithings appear to have had the same signification in Law as Parishes, Towns, and Vills, for each had but one Parish, Town, Vill, or Tithing; and as they increased the Tithing seems to have been the Manor of the present day, for the Chief was the Tithingman, and his Court the tribunal of the Manor; but now, by the increase of inhabitants, the Towns are divided into several Parishes, and the Parishes into several Tithings: thus it frequently happens that some of the Tithings extend into two or more Parishes, maintaining their own Poor, and contain several Hamlets, Farms, and Lands within the same. This will appear in

* There are 27 other Places where Fairs are kept.

Part III. p. 120, where the Parishes are given alphabetically, and the Tithings within the same; and because the Land Tax has always been collected in Tithings, eo nomine (not in Parishes), and the County Rate hath always been collected in Parishes, this List has been arranged so as to shew the Proportions of the two Taxations; and it will be perceived that there are several Tithings and Places which pay to the Land Tax and County Rate, though they do not belong to the Parish or Titling under which they are placed, but are put there to shew the sums of money originally paid in aid to that particular Parish or Titling, (distinguished in italic letter.) This intermixture of Parishes and Tithings one with another, and the seeming contradictions are noted, and this List is preserved merely to shew the sums paid in Tithings to the Land Tax (for no mention is made of it elsewhere), and the proportions originally paid, when the County Rate was settled in the year 1740.

THE 253 VILLS or VILLAGES enumerated in Part I. col. 6, are distinguished by stars; though there are some of the Villages depopulated, and have no Parish Officers, or Poor, these are noted where they occur.

THE 244 HAMLETS enumerated in Part I. col. 7, are distinguished in like manner. As the people increased in numbers, they spread themselves and inhabited other places within the precincts of the Tithings, and which, by being inhabited, became known, and took its name from two Saxon words Ham, Home, Hame, (Scotch,) which signified a dwelling, and Let signified to assign. They did not compose separate Societies in Civil or Ecclesiastical affairs, but remained Members of the Tithings, Manors, or Parishes, to which they originally belonged.—Finch b. 2, c. 4; St. Amand, p. 69. Hamlets are very early taken notice of, for in the Stat. of Exeter 256, 14 Edw. 1, (1285), mention is made of intire Vills, demi Vills, and Hamlets; and the Sheriff was commanded from the List or Roll to be made to him by the Bailiffs of Hundreds, &c., to summon the Jurors accordingly, viz., 8 from the intire Vill; 6 from the demi Vill; and 4 from the Hamlet; out of which were to be selected, 6 from the eight; 4 from the six; and 2 from the four; and in this proportion throughout his county.—See App. to Statutes p. 14, Cotton MS., Claudius D. 2.

THE 617 FARMS and LANDS, enumerated in Part I. col. 8, are distinguished in like manner. The original names of these farms have been sometimes changed by the owners; but the number of such will be found to be very few. According to the present arrangement of Part I. although the Civil and Ecclesiastical Divisions are placed together in one List, yet by the method adopted they are easily seen and distinguished, and in the enumeration of the Places, by marking such Places with stars, and bringing the whole into one point of view, the errors (if any) may be readily corrected with the pen. Upon the whole, this part will show the extent of the Parish, and every Chapelry, Town, Tithing, Vill, Hamlet, and Farm, within the same.

THE LIST, Part IV. p. 131, contains the New Divisions delineated on the Map or Plan of the County, prefixed hereto, and all the Parishes, Chapelries, and Places, maintaining their own poor are alphabetically arranged and numbered in each Division, and referred to by the numbers on the said map or plan, and this List shows at one view in four columns, viz. :—

1st. The estimated value of real Property made in 1815;

2d. The amount of the Poor Rates raised in the same year;

3d. The amount of the present County Rate; and

4th. The population in 1831, in every Parish, Place, and Division.

The 1st and 2d are taken from the Official Returns published by order of the House of Commons, on the 3d March, 1818, and the 1st October, 1831.

THE LIST, Part V. contains the New Divisions, and the Parishes and Places, as in List Part IV., with the names of the BRIDGES, in alphabetical order, within the same, and by whom such Bridges are to be repaired: distinguishing the County Bridges, and when first ordered to be repaired. This List is as perfect as it could be made from the information received from the Constables, and others.

The Extracts of particular Rules and Orders made at the Quarter Sessions, from the year 1664, are given in alphabetical order, and are preserved to be referred to, as occasion may require. The RULES and ORDERS for the regulation of the practice of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the use and information of the Profession of the Law attending at such Sessions, made and settled Michaelmas Sessions, 1830, is given p. 173, and is preceded by a Table of its Contents.

THE POLLING DISTRICTS settled by the Justices in Quarter Sessions, assembled 16th October, 1832, in pursuance of the Act 2 and 3 W. 4, c. 64, s. 35, for the Election of Knights of the Shire, are given p. 181, and also the Boundaries of the Seven Boroughs for the Election of Burgesses, sect. 35 of the said Act, p. 187.

In the Appendix is contained an Abstract of the Returns made to Parliament, in the year 1786, in pursuance of the Act 26 G. 3, c. 58. The Parishes in this County are arranged alphabetically, and the Heads of the Answers made to the Enquiries are extracted as fully as the size of the Book would admit of; and though several additions are made from the information since received, yet the account is still imperfect and far from being complete. The annual produce, in money is £844 10s. 1d.; and the produce in land £4,066 5s. 10½d.; making together £4,910 15s. 11½d. The amount thereof from the Returns made to Parliament, viz., in money £386 6s.; and in land £4,474 19s. 8d.; making together £4,861 5s. 8d.; so that it appears there is a difference of £59 5s. 3½d. per annum more than returned to Parliament. To assist this Enquiry an Index is made to the names of the Donors; and in the Index 28 Donors unknown are referred to.

Note.—The donations given formerly to the poor Prisoners confined in the Gaol, appear not to have been returned.

The Civil Division, &c.

THE CIVIL DIVISION of the County of Dorset was, from the time of our Saxon Ancestors, in HUNDREDS and TITHINGS*, and Officers, called the Hundredary and Tithingman, were elected and chosen to preside over each, and were the Civil Magistrates thereof. Out of these Hundreds certain Franchises, called Liberties and Boroughs have since been granted by the Crown to particular Persons, and to Bodies Corporate, and when the whole Hundred (which was frequently the case) has been granted, it has been sometimes called a Liberty. A certain Number of Tithings compose each Hundred and Liberty, and the Hundreds and Liberties (or Parts thereof) and Boroughs are placed into nine Divisions†, which now make up the County or Shire; the Civil Government and Administration of which are intrusted to certain Ministerial Officers and Magistrates, with other Persons having jurisdiction by substitution, delegation, or authority under them: such as the Clerk of the Peace, Under-Sheriff, County Clerk, Gaoler, Governor or Keeper of the House of Correction, and others, and are disposed in the following order:—

* These Hundreds and Tithings are mentioned in the Inquis. Gheldi and Rot' Hund'orum, and to whom granted.—See postea under Chief Constables, VI., and under Tithingmen, VII.

† These Divisions were formed in pursuance of the Acts of 9 G. 4, c. 43 and 10 G. 4, c. 46, at Midsummer Sessions, 1830, and carried into effect 1st September following.

I.—The CUSTOS ROTULORUM or Keeper of the Rolls or Records of the Sessions of the Peace, and of the Commission of the Peace for the County, appears to have been first appointed in 1390 (14 Rich. 2, c. 11) by the Lord Chancellor, for by reference to the stat. 3 Edw. 6, c. 1, mention is made that the nomination of the Custos Rotulorum (being a special Justice of the Peace) had of long time before belonged to the Office of Chancellor, until in the year 1545, (37 Hen. 8. c. 1) it was taken away, though in five years afterwards, the nomination thereof is restored, by the above statute of 3 Edw. 6, to the Lord Chancellor. This special Officer, so denominated, is usually a Person of Quality, is always a Justice of the Quorum, and the principal Civil Officer of the County. His appointment is by the King's Sign Manual, and to him the appointment of the Clerk of the Peace belongs. 37 Hen. 8, c. 1, s. 2, and 1 W. & M. stat. 1, c. 21, s. 4.—1 Black' Com', 349, and 4, p. 273.

The CLERK of the PEACE is the Deputy of the Custos Rotulorum, for by 1 W. & M. stat. 1, c. 21, s. 5, the Custos Rotulorum or other Person to whom it belongs to appoint, shall, where the Office shall be void, nominate a sufficient Person residing in the County, to exercise the same by himself, or sufficient Deputy, (so that the Deputy be admitted by the Custos Rotulorum, 37 H. 8, c. 1, s. 3) and to take and receive the Fees, Profits, and Perquisites thereof, for so long time only as he shall well demean himself in his office. By the Act 2 G. 2, c. 46, s. 14, no Clerk of the Peace, nor his Deputy, shall act as Solicitor, Attorney, or Agent at the Sessions where he shall execute the Office.

II.—The SHERIFF.—At the first division of this kingdom into Counties, the custody of the Shire is said to have been committed by the King, to the Earl or Comes: but the Earls, in process of time, by reason of their high employment and attendance on the King's person, not being able to transact the business of the County, were delivered of that burthen (Dalt. c. 1), reserving to themselves the honour, but the labour was laid on the Sheriff; and though the Sheriff be still called the Vice-Comes, (deputy to the Earl), yet he is entirely independent of, and not subject to him, the King, by his Letters Patent, committing Custodiam Comitatus to the Sheriff, and him alone. He is considered in our books as Bailiff to the Crown, and his County, of which he hath the care, and in which he is to execute the King's writs, is called his Bailiwick, 7 Co' 33. The Sheriffs were originally chosen by the people in their Folkmoete or County Court—Selden's Tit' of Hon' 610. Lord Coke says they were chosen, the same as the Coroner, by all the Freeholders, 2 Inst' 174, 558. In confirmation of this ancient usage in the year 1300 it was ordained by 28 Edw. 1, stat. 3, c. 8, "The King hath granted unto his People, " that they shall have election of their Sheriff in " every Shire, (where the Shrivalty is not of Fee) " if they list;" and, in c. 13, "Forasmuch as the King " hath granted the Election of Sheriffs to the Commons " of the Shire; The King will that they shall chuse " such Sheriffs that shall not charge them, and that " they shall not put any Officer in authority for Rewards " or Bribes. And such as shall not lodge too oft in " one place, nor with poor persons, or men of religion." But this election seems not to have been vested absolutely in the People, for it required the royal approbation. Shortly after, in the year 1316, these popular elections growing tumultuous, were put an end to by an Act of the Legislature, (9 Edw. 2, stat. 2, c. 1,) and the Sheriffs were to be assigned by the Chancellor, Treasurer, Barons of the Exchequer, Judges, and other Officers of the King: and that none should be Sheriff unless he had sufficient Land within the County, of which he was Sheriff, to answer to the King and his People: and thus this Office continued for upwards of four hundred and thirty years; subject to several regulations enacted by divers statutes concerning the appointments and nominating and chusing the Sheriffs until the year 1751, when by the Act 24 G. 2, c. 48, s. 12, for the abbreviation of Michaelmas Term, all the Judges, together with the other great officers, were to meet in the Exchequer Chamber on the morrow of St. Martin yearly, instead of the morrow of All Souls, and then and there propose three Persons to the King, who afterwards (if approved of) appoints one of them to be Sheriff, by marking each Name with the prick of a Pin; and for that reason this particular Election is generally termed pricking for Sheriffs.—1 Black' Com., 341, n. 4.—Impey's Sheriff, p. 8.

The following is the present mode of nominating Sheriffs in the Exchequer, on the morrow of Saint Martin:—

The Chancellor, Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Judges, and several of the Privy Council assemble, and an Officer of the Court administers an Oath to them in old French, that they will nominate no one from favour, partiality, or any improper motive: this done, the same Officer having the List of the Counties in alphabetical order, and of those who were nominated the year preceding, reads over the three Names, and the last of the three he pronounces to be the present Sheriff. If any of the Ministry or Judges have an objection to any Person named in the List, he then mentions it, and another Gentleman is nominated in his room; if no objection be made, some one rises and says, "to the two " Gentlemen I know no objection, and I recommend A. B.

 " Esq. in the room of the present Sheriff."

Another Officer has a Paper with a number of names given him by the Clerk of Assize for each County, which paper generally contains the names of the Gentlemen upon the former List, and also of Gentlemen who are likely to be nominated, and whilst the three are nominated, he prefixes 1, 2, or 3 to their names, according to the order in which they are placed; which, for greater certainty, he afterwards reads over twice. Several objections are made to Gentlemen; some, perhaps, at their own request; such as, that they are abroad, that their Estates are small and incumbered, that they have no Equipage, that they are practising Barristers, or Officers in the Militia, &c.

The new Sheriff is generally appointed about the end of the following Hilary Term; this extension of the time was probably in consequence of the 17th Edw. 4, c. 7, which enables the old Sheriff to hold his office over Michaelmas and Hilary Terms.

The counties of Dorset and Somerset had but one Sheriff until the 1st Nov. 1567, when, by and under the authority of the stat. 8 Eliz. c. 16, a Sheriff was appointed for each county.

The Officers appointed by the Sheriff are—1. Under-Sheriff. 2. County Clerk. 3. Bailiffs, and 4. Gaoler. The following is a List of Sheriffs from the year 1760, their Under-Sheriffs, and County Clerks.

* Died in this Year, and Andrew Bain was appointed his successor.

1.—The UNDER SHERIFF usually performs all the duties of the Office, a very few only excepted, where the personal presence of the High Sheriff is necessary; but no Under Sheriff shall abide in his Office above one Year, Dalt. c. 9; and if he does, by an Act passed in 1444, (23 Hen. 6, c. 7,) he forfeits £200, a large sum in those days: and no Under Sheriff or Sheriff's Officer shall practise as an Attorney during his continuance in such Office: 1 Hen. 5, c. 4. Black. Com. 1. p. 344. In the year 1416, all Sheriffs were to have Allowance upon their Accounts, by their Oaths, of things casual,* 4 Hen. 5, c. 2. Afterwards, in 1548, they were to have such Tallies† of Reward as they then afore had, and they were to be discharged in the Exchequer of such sums of Money which they could not levy. They were also to have an Allowance for the Charges and Expenses which they should sustain by the diet of the Justices of Assize, and by other means: 2 & 3 Edw. 6, c. 4. Likewise for the Wages of Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, 12 Rich. 2, c. 10—14 Rich. 2, c. 11. Dalton's Justice, c. 120. The Clerk of the Peace, after Michaelmas Sessions in every Year, returns to the Under-Sheriff a List, containing the Names of all the Justices who have attended the several Sessions; and whatever the Number may have been, the Sum of £48 is always allowed to the Sheriff at the Exchequer, and is paid by him to the Clerk of the Peace, who accounts for the same to the Justices towards a Fund which is appropriated at their discretion. When the counties of Dorset and Somerset, as before observed, were separated in 1567, the Sheriff of this County was to pay only half Charges and Fees, and the Charges and Rewards from thenceforth have been divided. Stat. 8 Eliz. c. 16, and 13 Eliz. c. 22.

Note.—The yearly sum of £4000 is set apart at the Exchequer for paying allowances. 3 G. 1, c. 16. s. 1. The share of this County is £101. 6s.

* Among these Casuals Two Shillings and Sixpence a Week is allowed for each Convict in the Gaol, after Conviction, and until removed to his or her destination, to be paid to the Gaoler by the Sheriff.

† What these Tallies are see Cowel, word Tailles.

By an Act passed 12th May, 1815, (55 Geo. 3, c. 50. s. 10.) The Sheriff or Under Sheriff is to be paid his customary fee for every Liberate granted to any Debtor on his discharge, out of the County Stock, by order of the Justices in Sessions; subject, however, to the approbation of the Judges of Assize. See a list of Under Sheriff's Fees in Schedule C.

2.—The COUNTY CLERK is appointed by the High Sheriff, as his Officer in the County Court, where all causes of 40s. value and under, are heard and determined;* which is to be held once every month upon a Wednesday, the month being computed according to eight and twenty days in the month, and not according to the Calendar. (Mag. Charta, c. 35. 9 H. 3, c. 35. 2 Edw. 6, c. 25.)—see a List of his Fees “Schedule D.”

3.—The BAILIFFS or SHERIFF'S OFFICERS are usually bound with sueties to the Sheriff, in an obligation for the due execution of their Office, and these are called “Bound Bailiffs.”† Special Bailiffs are nominated by the Plaintiff, or his Attorney, and appointed by the Sheriff, pro hac vice, Tidd. 214. Dalt. 185, 187. See a List of their Fees, Sch. E. The Names of the Bound Bailiffs in this County (1832), are

George White, of Dorchester.
Wm. Sherring, jun., of Beaminster.
James Major, of Bridport.
John Hall, of the same Place.
Walter Pride, of Sherborne.

William Burge, of Stalbridge.
George Highman, of Shaftesbury.
George Best, of Wareham.
J. M. Long, of Wincanton, Somerset.
John Justins, of Sherborne.

* By virtue of a Writ of Justicies, the Court may hold Plea of any Sum above 40s.—4 Inst. 266.

† The Bailiffs of Hundreds and Liberties are appointed at the Court Leets.—See No. IV. Postea.—See 1 Black. Com., p. 345.

4.—The GAOLER is appointed by the Sheriff, and he must be responsible for his conduct, 14 Edw. 3, c. 10. His business is to keep safely all persons committed to him by lawful Warrant, and if he suffer any such to escape, the Sheriff shall answer it to the King, if it be a criminal matter, or, in a civil case, to the party injured, 4 Rep. 34, 2 Inst. 592. Every County hath two sorts of Gaols, one for the Prisoners by the Sheriff taken for Debt, and the other for Breach of the Peace and matter of the Crown, which is the County Gaol, Latch 16, 1 And. 345. As the Gaoler is but the Sheriff's Servant, therefore he may discharge him at pleasure, and if he refuses to surrender up or quit possession of the Gaol, the Sheriff may turn him out by force, as he may any private person: and each are under the Regulation of the Court of King's Bench. Reg. 29, Impey's Sheriff, p. 51. On the 1st October, 1815, all Fees payable by any Prisoner, either civil or criminal, to the Gaoler or his Servants, were abolished, and an allowance is made in lieu thereof by way of salary, under Stat. 55 G. 3, c. 50—56 G. 3, c. 116, s. 3. By the Act (4 Geo. 4, c. 64) which passed 20th July, 1823, the several Statutes and Acts, and parts of Statutes and Acts, then existing relative to the Building, Repairing, and Regulating of Gaols and Houses of Correction in England and Wales are repealed; and certain general Rules and Regulations are thereby established, which are directed to be carried into effect in all Gaols and Houses of Correction in every County, so far as they may be applicable to the particular description or Class of Prisoners confined therein: such Rules to be binding on the Sheriff, and all other Persons, provided they do not interfere with the right or duty of the Sheriff to appoint or remove the Keeper of the County Gaol. The 12th s. of the Statute also gives further Authority to the Justices in Sessions to make additional Rules and Regulations for the Government of Prisons within their Jurisdiction, subject to the Approbation of the Justices of Gaol Delivery at the Assizes. In pursuance of this Act the Justices assembled at the Midsummer Quarter Sessions, 1824, proceeded to make the Rules and Regulations to be observed in the County Gaol and House of Correction at Dorchester and by these Rules and Regulations,* the duties of the several Officers appointed, viz.: The Gaoler—Chaplain—Surgeon—Matron—Clerk—Turnkeys, and Wardsmen and Wardswomen, are particularly mentioned and expressed. The Persons who have held the Office of Gaoler from the year 1680, are 1722. Edw. Chaffey.

1728. James Chaffey.

1782. Batt Chaffey.

1786. Geo. Andrews.

1803. ROBERT W. ANDREWS.

By the 25th sec. of the above-mentioned Statute, (4 G. 4, c. 64), the Justices in Session have power to appoint such Keepers, Matrons, and other Officers, as to them may seem expedient, for every Prison within their Jurisdiction, except the Keeper of the Common Gaol, so that the Keeper of the Prison at Dorchester, which contains the County Gaol, and also the House of Correction, has a double Appointment, one annually from the Sheriff, and the other from the Justices in Session, who have also a power to remove such Officers as occasion may require. By sec. 26 of the same

V, p. 31. His Salary has been fixed at £50 per Annum, payable quarterly out of the County Rate, exclusive of Medicines, and

III.—CORONERS are of equal antiquity with the Sheriff, and were ordained with them to keep the Peace when the Earls gave up the Wardship of the County. Mirr' c. 1, s. 3. CORONERS for the County are chosen by the Freeholders by virtue of the King's Writ de coronatore eligendo, directed to the Sheriff, in which it is expressly commanded "that he do cause such one to be chosen as of the best informed and most willing and able to hold that office;" and in order to effect this more surely, in 1354 it was enacted by the st. 28 Ed. 3, c. 6, "That all Coroners of the Counties shall be "chosen in the full Counties by the Commons of the "same Counties, of the most meet and most lawful "people that shall be found in the said Counties, to "execute the said office, saved always to the King "and other Lords which ought to make such Coroners their Seigniories and Franchises." His office is to make enquiry concerning the death of the King's subjects, and certain Revenues of the Crown; and also, in particular cases, to supply the office of Sheriff. The Coroners for this county appear never to have been more than three. Their Names, from the year 1760 are as follow:—

IV.—JUSTICES OF THE PEACE were first created and assigned Keepers and Conservators of the Peace in the years 1327, 1328, and 1344, by statutes 1 Edw 3, c. 16; 4 Edw. 3, c. 2; and 18 Edw. 3, c. 2, by the King's Commission, and in this manner was the election of the Conservators of the Peace taken from the People and given to the King; but still they were only Conservators, Wardens, or Keepers, till 1360, by the st. 34 Edw. 3, c. 1, which gave them the power of trying Felonies, and then they acquired the more honourable appellation of Justices. Black' Com' 1, p. 351; and afterwards, in the year 1444, by the stat. 2 Hen. 5, c. 1, the constituting Justices of the Peace became inherent and inseparable from the Crown, and their appointment is by commission in the King's name made, of common course, under the Great Seal of England, by the direction of the Lord Chancellor, according to the before-mentioned statute of Henry 5.

Note.—The year is mentioned when the acting Justices took out their dedimus potestatem; and those with a Star (*) prefixed, have died since the Commission passed.

The MAYORS and BAILIFFS of BOROUGHs, in this County, are constituted by their CHARTERS of Incorporation, to exercise the office of Justices within their Jurisdictions, with almost equal powers as the Justices of the County at large. See a List of the present Mayors, Bailiffs, and their Town Clerks, under the head of CONSTABLES within Franchises, postea, sect. VI.

2. The MASTER or GOVERNOR of the HOUSE of CORRECTION was first directed to be appointed in 1573, by the stat. 18 Eliz. c. 3, with a Salary to be paid him quarterly by the Treasurer of the County; but no one appears to have been regularly appointed until 1610, stat. 7 Jac. 1, c. 4. The Names of the Persons appointed to the House of Correction at Sherborne, which seems to have been the only one in this County, are—

- 1610—.....
- 16..—James Gascoigne.
- 1708—Nathaniel Thornton, vice Gascoigne, dec.
- 1718—Francis Derby, vice Thornton, dis.
- 1722—Francis Derby, vice his Father, dec.
- 1730—Robert Ring, vice Derby, res.
- 1754—John Bown, vice Ring, res.
- 1772—John Gerrard, vice Bown, dec.
- 1793—Isaac Gerrard, vice his Father, dec.

The House of Correction was removed from Sherborne to Dorchester, in the year 1793, and united with the County Gaol, and there has been no other in the County since that time. The Gaoler is now appointed the Keeper of the said House of Correction, by the Justices in Sessions, under the Regulations of the stat. 4 G. 4, c. 64. His Salary extends to both offices.—See Sec. II, No. 4, Gaol.

V.—The TREASURER of the County keeps the County Stock. He is appointed in pursuance of the stat. 12 G. II, c. 29, s. 11, by the Justices in Sessions, who have power to continue or remove him at their pleasure. At the Michaelmas Sessions, 1739, soon after the passing the above-mentioned Act, two Treasurers were appointed, one for the Western, and the other for the Eastern Districts of the said County, the Act allowing the appointment of more than one Treasurer, and these appointments were continued until the Midsummer Sessions, 1820, when the offices were united, and the two persons who then held the separate offices were appointed to the single office of Treasurer for the whole County. The Treasurers appointed for the two separate Districts since the year 1739, have been as follow:—

WESTERN DISTRICT.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

1739—Nicholas Stickland. Mich. S.	1739—Robert Loder. Mich. S.
1769—Robert Lambert. Epiph. S.	1751—Walter Erle. Easter S.
1802—John C. Mantfield. Mich. S.	1775—George Hayward. Mich. S.
1803—EDWARD BOSWELL. Mich. S.	1780—Thos. Water, jun. Mids. S.
	1787—J. T. KING. Easter S.

The office is now held by EDWARD BOSWELL and JOHN TREGONWELL KING, with a Salary of £60 per annum, payable out of the County Rate, under the authority of the statutes 12 G. 2, c. 29, s. 11, and 55 G. 3, c. 51, s. 17.

The before mentioned statute, 12 G. 2, c. 29, directed the mode of levying and paying the County Rates, and a new Rate was then made (1740), which has subsisted ever since. The various payments chargeable on the County Rate, are specified by several statutes: and no charge but such as is authorised by statute can be legally paid out of the County Rate without the special direction of the Justices in Session.

Before the passing of the Act, 12 G. 2, c. 29, the various expenses borne by the county appear to have been discharged by what was termed a Bridge Rate, which varied as to the amount. The following Rate (which is at £250) was collected in the year 1672 by the High Constables of the several Hundreds, Liberties, and Boroughs, in the five Divisions of this County, as hereinafter mentioned, viz.—

The amount of the Money expended by Treasurers from the year 1740 to the year 1823 inclusive, specified under the respective heads, to which the Public Stock of the County is applicable by Law: and likewise the Money raised by Rates, or otherwise received by Treasurers, making the County Stock, within the same period to meet such Expenditure, is hereafter given in an Abstract [Schedule I.]

BAILIFFS of Hundreds and Liberties are appointed at the Courts Leet, held at Michaelmas yearly, or in default thereof by the Justices in Sessions, and frequently, if none are appointed, the Chief Constables do the duty. These officers execute the Precepts of the Justices within their Franchises, Hundreds, or Liberties; attend the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, collect Fines, summon Juries, &c., though of late years, for want of regular appointments to this office, the latter is done by the bound Bailiffs.

VI.—CONSTABLES of Hundreds and Liberties were officers ordained by the Common Law in the Saxon age, for when Hundreds were derived out of Counties, in every Hundred HIGH CONSTABLES were appointed, and in process of time, in most of the large Towns and Boroughs, PETTY CONSTABLES, or Headboroughs, besides the Tithingman, were also chosen, who, by virtue of their offices, were, as well as the High Constables, Conservators of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions.—Fineux, Lord C. J. of K. B. temp. H. 7.—Dall' Just' c. 16.—Salk' Rep' 3, p. 98. All these officers were appointed in the Sheriff's Tourn, and afterwards in the Courts Leet*, which were derived out of it, and which seem to have been parcel of, and appendant to the Hundred, granted out by the Crown to the ancient Thanes, and others of great rank. On the decline of the Saxon Jurisprudence, in after times, Manors were, in like manner, parcelled out and granted to the Barons; and as these High and Petty Constables are recognised by the Common Law, it cannot be true, as it is said, that the former were first created in 1285, by the stat. of Winchester, 13 Edw. 1, stat. 2, c. 6, for these appear to have been specially chosen and appointed. By this statute every man was obliged, according to his estate and degree, to provide a determinate quantity of such arms as were then in use, in order to keep the peace, and it was enacted “That view of Armour “be made every year, two times, and in every Hun“dred and Franchise two Constables shall be chosen

* This Court was originally derived out of the Tourn—Co. Inst. c. 54; as Hundreds were derived out of the County Court, 12 Hen. 7, c. 15.—Bract.

“to make the view of Armour,* &c.,” therefore it should seem that the Constables, chosen under the authority of this statute, were, in addition to those before appointed at the Courts Leet, and seems to furnish evidence of the previous existence of such officers. Salk’ Rep’ 1, p. 175.—2 Hawk’ c. 10, s. 33.

As the speedy and effectual execution of the Law depends much upon the ability, discretion, and activity of the Constables, it was thought advisable to call the attention of those who have the appointment sect. 24. It is remarkable that the word “Leet” is not to be found in any of our ancient Law Writers, nor in any statute prior to the 27th Edw. 3, c. 28, (1354); nor again until 4 Edw. 4, c. 1, and 12 Edw. 4, c. 19. though this Court was known to have existed in the time of the Saxons, and frequently occurs in Domesday Book.

* These Weapons were changed in 1577, (4 Ph. and M., c. 2,) into others of more modern service; but both this and the former provisions were repealed in 1603, (1 Jac’ 1, c. 25). Black’ Com’ 1, p. 410.

of such officers, to the selection of proper persons, and particularly to the residence of the Constables in the Hundreds and Liberties for which they are appointed, during the continuance of their office. With that view the following recommendation was made, Mid' Ses', 1792.

“ WHEREAS a material part of the duty of High “ Constables of the several and respective Hundreds,
 “ and Liberties, within this County, consists in executing
 “ the Justices’ Precepts for the County at large; and in “ collecting the Rates of the said County, and in making “ returns thereof: AND WHEREAS great inconveniences have “ arisen from a want of proper and responsible persons

 “ recommended to the Under Sheriff, and Stewards
 “ of the several Courts within this County, where “ such High Constables are elected, to prevent, as far “ as lies in their power, the appointment of persons who “ are improper, and not responsible, to execute the said

 “ as shall have been so elected, to the Clerk of the Peace “ of the said County.

By the Court, WALLIS.”

Note.—Within the Hundreds marked with a Star (*) no Courts have been held for a long time past; therefore the High Constables, &c. of these Hundreds are appointed at the Quarter Sessions.

If any Constable appointed as aforesaid shall die, or go out of the Parish or Place, any two Justices may make and swear a new one, until the Lord of the Manor shall hold a Court Leet; and if any Officer shall continue above a year in his office, the Justices in Quarter Sessions may discharge him and put another in his place, until the Lord of the Manor shall hold a Court as aforesaid.—13 & 14 Car. 2, c. 12, s. 15.

VII.—TITHINGMEN.—These Officers are unquestionably very ancient, and the Borsholder, (Burgh Elder), Headborough, and Tithingman were synonymous, and are also, as well as Constables, elected and chosen at the Court Leet, and where no Court Leet is held, by the Justices in Sessions, as before observed. In this County, and in all the Western Counties of the Kingdom, this officer has been always called the Tithingman, and his office is the same as that of the Petty Constable, and both are in aid of the High Constable. In some of the large Parishes in the County, two Tithingmen are appointed, and they take the East or West, North or South parts of the Parish respectively. For the number of these Tithingmen, (see Part II), and for the Allowances to be made to them in the Execution of their Office. (See Sch. K.)

VIII.—SURVEYORS OF BRIDGES.—By the common law Counties were chargeable with the Repairs of Public Bridges, unless some Persons, by reason of the Tenure of their Lands or Tenements, or others by prescription only, were bound to repair: but that no Town or Freeman shall be distrained to make Bridges, nor Banks, but such as of old time of right have been accustomed, (9 Hen. 3, c. 15); and none can be compelled to make new Bridges where never any were before, but by Act of Parliament—Co. 2 Inst. 701. From the year 1530, by the stat. 22 Hen. 8, c. 5, the Justices (four of them at the least) shall have power and authority to appoint two Surveyors to see all decayed Bridges repaired and amended from time to time, as often as need shall require, (s. 4), with such Costs and Charges as by their discretion shall be thought convenient, (s. 5,) and such part and portion of the Highways at the ends of such Bridges to be repaired and amended in like manner, (s. 9.) And the Quarter Sessions may appoint annually two Justices in each Division, to give directions for the Repairs of such decayed Bridges, and to issue a written order for that purpose, provided such expenses shall not exceed £20.—Stat. 53 G. 3, c. 110, s. 1. Mr. WILLIAM EVANS, of Wimborne Minster, is appointed the Surveyor for this County, at a Salary of £200 per Annum. For an Account of all the Stone Bridges within this County see Part V.

IX.—SURVEYORS OF HIGHWAYS were first constituted in 1555, by the stat. 2 & 3 Ph. & M. c. 8, and directed to be appointed by the Constable and Churchwarden in every Parish and Place. Before this statute every Parish or Place was bound, of common right to keep the Highways in sufficient Repair, unless by reason of the Tenure of Lands, or otherwise, this Care was consigned to some particular private Person.—Black. Com' 1, p. 357. Now, by stat. 13, G. 3, c. 78, (1773,) Surveyors are to be appointed after Michaelmas annually, by the Justices, out of such Inhabitants or others as are described in the said statute, to remove Annoyances in, and to direct the reparation of the Public Highways. For the number of these Officers, see Part IV.

X.—OVERSEERS of the POOR were first ordained in the year 1601, stat. 43 Eliz. c. 2, and are nominated and appointed in every Parish or Place, on 25th March, or within 14 Days after (though a subsequent nomination will be valid) by two Justices dwelling near the Parish. They must be substantial Householders, and expressed so to be in the appointment of the Justices. The care of the Poor is intrusted to them, in conjunction with the Churchwardens, where there are any. They are required to meet at least once a month, in the Church, on Sunday, after Divine Service in the Afternoon, under a Penalty. The more prominent part of their duties are—1. To make a Rate in order to raise a Fund for the maintenance of the Poor. 2. To ascertain what Poor the Parish or Place for which they are appointed, are bound to maintain. 3. To remove such Persons as it is not liable to support, as soon as they become actually chargeable. 4. To inspect the economy, and administer to the wants of the Poor. 5th, and lastly, upon going out of office to make up and pass their accounts, and deliver over any balance in their hands to their successors, together with the property and documents of the Parish.—Nolan, 41, 52, 53.

In the year 1776, Parliament first instituted an enquiry into the state of the Poor, and Overseers of the several Parishes and Places within that part of Great Britain called England, were required to make Returns, on Oath, to certain Questions specified in the Act (16 G. 3, c. 40), relative to their Relief and Maintenance; and again in the years 1787, 1803, and 1815, similar Returns were directed to be made by the Acts 26 G. 3, c. 56,—43 G. 3, c. 144, and 55 G. 3, c. 47.

The Questions in the last mentioned Statute (Sch. A,) were as follow:—

1. What was the Amount of Money raised by the Poor's Rate, or any other Rate or Rates, in each Year, ending the 25th March?

2. What was the Amount of Money expended in each Year, ending as aforesaid, for the Relief and Maintenance of the Poor?

3. What was the Amount of Money expended in each Year, ending as aforesaid, in Suits of Law, Removal of Paupers, and Expenses of Overseers, or other Officers employed?

4. What was the Amount of Money expended in each Year, ending as aforesaid, for Militia Purposes; distinguishing the Maintenance of the Wives and Children of Militiamen, from any other Militia Charges?

5. What was the Amount of Money expended in each Year, ending as aforesaid, for all other Purposes, (except the two last Questions, 3 and 4), including County Rate, Church Rate, Highway Rate, Rent of Workhouses, Setting the Poor on Work, &c. &c. &c.

6. What was the Total Amount of Money expended in each Year, ending as aforesaid?

7. What was the number of Persons relieved from the Poor's Rate, permanently, throughout the Year: distinguishing Persons so relieved out of any Workhouse, and Persons so relieved in the House: but not including any Children, whose Parents have been permanently relieved out of the House?

8. What was the number of Parishioners relieved occasionally within each Year?

9. What is the number of Members of Friendly Societies, &c. ?

10. What is the average annual Amount or Produce of Charitable Donations, (whether arising out of Land or Money) which have been given by Deed or Will for the Benefit of Poor Persons; and which are distributed by the Minister, Churchwardens, and Overseers, or any of them, distinguishing such Donations as are applicable to the Maintenance of Parish Schools ?

11. Is there any Hospital or Almshouse, School, or other permanent Charitable Foundation, which is not under the management and control of the Minister, Churchwarden, or Overseer, or any of them ?

AN ABSTRACT

Note.—The above three Years, (1783, 1784, 1785,) contain the medium of Expenses, but the number of Poor who received constant or occasional Relief is not returned. For the purpose of compressing this Abstract in the Octavo size, the fractional Parts of a Pound have been omitted.

Column 1.—These Receipts include the amount of Charitable Donations distributed by the Minister and Parish Officers, Fines, and other Sums received, which make “the Parish Stock.”

Column 2.—The actual Expense in each Year, (except the Years 1783, 1784, 1785, being the medium or average of those Years.)

Column 3.—The Expenses of Law Business, Orders of Removal, Examinations, and other Proceedings.—Expenses of Entertainments at Meetings, Expenses in Journeys, and Attendance on Magistrates.

Column 4.—These Charges must have been included in Column 5, for the first five Years.

Column 5.—These Charges (except the Money paid to the County Rate, the Money paid for Rent of Workhouses, and for setting the Poor on Work) ought not to have been included in the Parish Stock Account.

Column 6.—This is the actual Expense, except in the three Years above mentioned.

In the Year 1815 the number of Select Vestries was 34, and the number of Assistant Overseers, 48.

The Total of the Money raised in the Years 1813, 1814, and 1815, appears to have averaged the Sum of £109,890, which is at the rate of £0 3s. 2d. in the Pound, according to the Sums assessed to the Property Tax, in the year 1815.

(c) The number of Persons relieved from the Rate, according to the Population Returns in 1811, appears to have been about a seventh part of the Population.

The evidence afforded by the above Abstracts shows that from the first enquiry in 1776 to 1813, (a Period of thirty-seven years), the Money expended in the last year was more than four times the amount in 1776: and that in the last five years the Expenditure has amounted, on an average of those years, to the enormous sum of £108,272 for this County. There appears to have been a diminution in 1815, but it increased again to the above average sum in the years 1827 and 1830, when his Majesty's Government, and not Parliament, directed Returns to be made. This gradual increase which has taken place, both in the Assessment for the Relief, Support, and Maintenance of the Poor, and in the number of Paupers relieved, must have arisen from Causes inherent in the System itself; as it does not appear to have depended entirely upon any temporary or local circumstances. Scarcity of Provisions and a diminished demand for particular Manufactures have frequently occasioned, and consequently increased, the pressure in particular Parishes or Places: but in this County the largest proportion of the Population is employed in Agriculture, and yet there is the same progressive augmentation in the Expenditure as is to be found in the manufacturing Counties.

In addition to the Civil Officers before mentioned, a special Officer was appointed to receive the Public permanent Taxes of the County, namely "The Receiver General," from the Year 1692, (4 W. & M. c. 1.) The following Persons were appointed.

1692—John Fisher.	1798—Morgan Yeatman.
1729—John Derbie.	1800—Gabriel Tucker Steward.
1766—Richard Tucker.	1803—William O'Brien.
1777—Francis Steward.	1811—Walter Parry Hodges.

This Office is now transferred to the Inspector of Taxes, Mr. PRIOR, of Bath.

The Land Tax, was imposed very early, for ever since the year 1692 it has continued in the form it now stands more than half that time, at 4s. in the Pound; sometimes at 3s., sometimes at 2s., and in the Years 1732 and 1733, at 1s., but without any total intermission. The medium has been 3s. 4d. in the Pound. The present Rate is at 4s., but it is, in fact, on an average throughout the County, certainly less than 2s., and is collected on Tithings (not on Parishes) eo nomine, and a certain number of these Tithings make up the Division, though there are Places denominated Tithings within the same Division, Hundred, or Liberty, and there are others that make part of and pay into Parishes which do not belong to the Division, Hundred, or Liberty, and from immemorial custom, or other reasons which cannot now be ascertained, were never separately collected or altered. The Sums assessed on each Tithing throughout the County, to this Tax, are particularly mentioned in Part III, and amount to £32,751 15s. 10½d., but about one-eighth of this Tax is redeemed.

2ndly—The Assessed Taxes were first imposed in 1696, on Houses and Windows; in 1777 on Male Servants; in 1782 on Carriages; in 1784 on Horses for Riding, &c., Horse Dealers, and on Game Licenses; in 1795 on Hair Powder; in 1796 on Dogs; in 1798 on Armorial Bearings; and in 1808 on Husbandry Horses, &c. These were assessed annually, and in the year 1810, amounted in this County to about £58,000, but since that time, there has been a gradual decrease.

3dly—The Property Tax was first imposed in 1798, in order to furnish the means of defraying the enormous cost of the War. It was at first proposed to triple the Amount of the Assessed Taxes, but this Plan however did not answer, and a Tax on Income was substituted in its stead: the Rate of Duty increased in a variety of gradations from £60 to £200 or upwards, and then it amounted to one-tenth part, which was its utmost limit; there were several deductions granted on account of Children, &c. This Tax was repealed in 1802, after the Peace. In 1803 it was again revived, under the Name of Property Tax at 5 per Cent., or 1s. in the pound, to this an Addition was made in 1805, and in 1806 it was increased to 10 per Cent., at which it remained till the year 1816, when this Tax was finally repealed. The Assessment on real Property (Schedule A.) amounted, in the last year (1815) to £69,839, viz. 2s. in the pound on £698,395 10s. 3½d. the estimated annual Value of such real Property, the amount of which, in each Parish and Place, is mentioned hereafter, Part IV.

☞ The like Fees to be taken by the Bailiff of the Liberty of Sherborne and Castle there, and his Under-Bailiffs and Officers.

Note.—There are several other Fees taken by bound Bailiffs; but it has been determined that Justices in Sessions have no authority to fix Bailiffs' Fees for Arrests in Civil Suits; nor will the Court of B. R. allow more than the usual fee of one Guinea, though a larger sum has been in fact paid, under the sanction of a Table of Fees settled by the Sessions, and acted upon in practice for many years.—Mich. Term, 30, G. III.—Term Reports, vol. 3, p. 427.—Bailiffs are therefore guilty of extortion, if they exact more than is allowed colore officii.

POOLE, Town and County, Land-Tax, £328 : 2s.
Total.....£.	32751 16 5	496 5 — $\frac{1}{4}$

NOTE—The County Expenditure has of late years been about 18 Rates of £496 : 5s. — $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per Rate, or £8932 : 10s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per annum, (about 3d. in the pound); and it is a singular fact, that by the annual amount of the four preceding Taxations, it appears that the said sum of £8932 is about $\frac{1}{4}$ of the land-tax, (being 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ d. in the pound throughout the County), about $\frac{1}{8}$ of the Property Tax, Sch. A., (which, at 2s. in the pound, amounted in this County to £69839), and about $\frac{1}{12}$ of the Money raised by Poor Rates (being 2s. 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. in the pound); though it should be observed that the County Rates are paid out of the Poor Rates, which probably should have been borne by a distinct Rate made for this purpose.

(a) The sum of £2 : 8s. 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ d. reduced on appeal. (b) The sum of 11s. — $\frac{1}{2}$ ditto.
(c) The sum of 12s. ditto, from the original sum of £500.—see p. 130.

BRIDPORT HARBOUR.

Corporation of Bridport v. the Owners and Occupiers of Lands at Bridport Mouth.—On the oath of Andrew Way, gent. it appears, that by order of the Corporation of Bridport, he had allotted and piled out 8 acres, 3 roods, 13 perches of land, at the place mentioned in the act for the intended building of an harbour; and it was moved by Counsel that the precept, under the hands and seals of two Justices, be read and filed; and notice was given of such allotment to the occupiers of such lands, and proved on oath; and it was also proved on oath by the testimony of witnesses that 6 acres 3 roods 25 perches, part of the premises, were in possession of John Best, who claimed the same by lease from George Pitt the elder, Esq. for a term of twenty-one years, of which $6\frac{1}{2}$ years were then in being; and the reversion and inheritance thereof belonged to Sir Anthony Sturt, Knt. George Chafin, George Pitt the elder, and George Pitt the younger, Esquires, upon and subject to several trusts and uses mentioned in the settlements of the lands and estates of the said George Pitt the elder, and that the annual value thereof was 45s. and no more; and that upon the said land there is built a small hut, rented at 27s. a year:—that 2 acres 25 perches, other part of the said lands so allotted, was the inheritance of Thomas Strangways Horner, Esq. and Susanna his wife, Stephen Fox, Esq. and Susanna his wife, and Sir Robert Long, Bt. being part of the lands of Thomas Strangways, Esq. dec.; that on part thereof there was also a hut built, and that against the said hut there were two sheds erected; and that 25 perches, part thereof, was occupied with the hut, and were claimed by Robert Chilcott, who held the same from the Strangways family by lease on lives, of which two were then in being; that the said Robert Chilcott was in possession of 2 acres, part of the same; and that William Lawes was in possession, as tenant to the said Chilcott, of the said hut and the 25 perches; and the sheds were erected and possessed by John Lea, John Bishop, William Bishop, and John White; and that the said 2 acres, 25 perches were situate on the east side of the river there, and were part of the lands so allotted:—that the two acres of ground (all sandy lands) in the possession of Robert Chilcott, was worth 3s. a-year, and not more; that the hut, now in possession of the said William Lawes, was then let for and worth 35s. a-year; and the 25 perches belonging to it was worth 5s. a year; but the sheds were not worth 12d. a-year.

That the remainder of the lands thus allotted contains about one acre more, and was part of the common meadow on the west side of the river there ; and that the feeding of the after-share of the said acre of meadow, from Monday next after the first day of August until Monday next after the first day of February, yearly, was claimed by the said Thomas Strangwayes Horner, and others, being part of the lands of the said Thomas Strangwayes, deceased ; and the same was also held by the said Robert Chilcott by virtue of the said lease, and was in his occupation. And that one quarter-part of the fore-share of half an acre and five perches of the said premises thus allotted, was the inheritance of William Waldron, Esq. and then occupied by Henry Davie, as tenant at will to the said William Waldron ; and the other three-fourth parts of the said half acre and five perches was the inheritance of John Bragg, Esq. and Elizabeth his daughter, then the wife of George Bethell, Esq. or of the said George Bethell in her right, and now occupied also by said Henry Davie ; and that the fore-share of 20 perches of the said acre was the inheritance of Simon Taylor, Gent. and was occupied also by the said Henry Davie, as tenant to the said Simon Taylor ; and the residue, being the fore-share of about 30 perches, was the inheritance of Matthew Hounsell, Gent. and was occupied also by the said Henry Davie, as tenant to the said M. Hounsell ; and that the value of the whole acre thus allotted is worth 20s. a-year and not more : And it was also proved that the said Henry Davie was willing and desirous to release all profits and advantages accruing to him as tenant thereof, so as the whole would be equally divided between his landlords, the owners and proprietors of the same. JURORS--Walter Mullens, Robert Symes, Christopher Marsh, Richard Henville, Robert Hansford, Robert Greening, Edward Lawrence, John Beer, Samuel Hoskins, John Marsh, William Greening, Henry Gould. The said JURORS on their oath say, That 45s. is the yearly value of the 6 acres 3 roods 25 perches, part of the said premises thus allotted as aforesaid, and then in possession of the said John Best ; and they assess the same to the sum of £45, and say, that they award and give unto the said John Best, in lieu of his damage and recompense for his interest therein, to be paid by the said bailiffs and burgesses, the sum of £13 : 10s. and the remainder thereof, being £31 : 10s. unto the said Sir Anthony Sturt, George Chafin, George Pitt the elder, and George Pitt the younger, to be paid by the bailiffs, &c. subject to the trusts, and to the same uses, intents, and purposes, as the lands belonging to the said George Pitt the elder and George Pitt the younger are limited, provit the settlements: And they assess the hut built on some part of the said 6 acres 3 roods 25 perches, to the sum of £28 : 4s. and award that 40s. part thereof, be paid unto the said Jonathan Hayden; and that £6 other part thereof, be paid unto the said John Best; and the residue thereof, being £20 : 4s. be paid unto the said Sir Anthony Sturt, and others; subject as aforesaid, in full for their several and respective estates and interests in the same. And the jurors further say, that they assess the said two acres on the east side of the said river thus allotted, to the sum of £3, and they award and give 36s. part thereof, unto the said Thomas Strangwayes Horner and Susanna his wife, and Stephen Fox, Esq. and Susanna his wife; and one shilling, the residue thereof, unto the said Sir Robert Long; to be paid by the bailiffs and burgesses, in full of their respective estates and interests in the same. And that they assess the hut, and also the 25 perches adjoining, other part of the said premises, and then in the possession of William Lawes, to the sum of £24 : 10s. and award and give the sum of £5 part of the said £24 : 10s. unto the said William Lawes; and the sum of £9 : 15s. other part thereof, unto the said Robert Chilcott; and the sum of £9 : 15s. the remainder thereof, unto the said Thomas Strangwayes Horner and Susanna his wife, Stephen Fox and Susanna his wife, in full recompense for their respective interests therein. And that they assess the two sheds built against the hut, to the sum of 20s., and award that 5s. be paid to each of them the said John Lea, John Bishop, William Bishop, and John White, in full recompense for their respective interests in the same; to be paid by the said bailiffs and burgesses. And the jurors further say, that they assess the acre of meadow on the west side of the said river, to the sum of £20, other part of the lands thus allotted, and award the sum of £7 to be the value of the after-share thereof, and give the sum of £3 : 15s. part of the said sum of £7, to the said Robert Chilcott; and £3 : 5s. the other part of the said sum of £7, unto the said Thomas Strangwayes Horner and Susanna his wife, Stephen Fox and Susanna his wife; to be paid by the said bailiff and burgesses, in full recompense for their several estates and interests of the said acre: and also assess the foreshare of the said acre, to the sum of £13, and award the sum of £5 : 5s. part thereof, to be given to the said John Bragg, George Bethell, and Elizabeth his wife; and assess the sum of £1 : 15s. other part of the said £13, to be given to the said William Waldron; and assess the sum of £2 : 10s. other part of the said £13, to be given to the said Simon Taylor; and the sum of £3 : 10s. the residue of the said £13, to be given to the said Stephen Hounsell; to be paid by the said bailiffs and burgesses, in full of their several estates and interests in the said acre of ground: And they find all other facts to support their award and order, and thereon judgment is given according to the said verdict.—*Mich. Sess. 1740.

BRIDGES—see County Bridges.

CLERK OF THE PEACE.

The Justices of the Peace assembled at this sessions, being informed of the death of THOMAS COWARD, Esq. late Clerk of the Peace for this County, and the most Noble Charles, Duke of Bolton, having omitted to appoint a Clerk of the Peace, (no person appearing to execute the said office,) to the end that there might be no delay in the execution of justice, have unanimously elected and appointed BRYAN COMBE, of South Mapperton, in the county of Dorset, Clerk of the Peace for this County, pursuant to the statute, To hold, &c. until another Clerk of the Peace shall be duly appointed. 37 H. VIII. c. 1.—Epip. Sess. 1726.

COUNTY CLERK.

Wm. Harris, Esq. the senior Justice of the Peace of the Quorum now present in Court, in the absence of the Custos Rotulorum of this County, in pursuance of the statute, doth appoint and name Robert Browne, George Richards, Sydenham Williams, and Thomas Haskett, Esqrs. four of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of this County, or any or either of them, to inspect the County Clerk's books, and to put the statute, 11 Henry VII. c. 15, in execution.—Mich. Sess. 1743.

* An Act of Parliament passed in 1722, 3 G. I. to restore and rebuild this harbour; but it does not appear that the Act was put in execution till this present quarter sessions. The pier was begun by Mr. Reynolds, engineer, and finished in 1742: towards the expense of which, Lord Deerburch and Geo. Richards, Esq. the two Representatives, gave £3,500; Richard Brodrepp, Esq. gave £1000, and the Town £500, making in the whole the sum of £5000.—Hutchins's Hist. of Dorset.—It appears by the accounts of the bailiffs and burgesses of Bridport, passed at Mich. Sess. 1744, that the sums of £3500, £500, and 16 guineas, for plans, &c. was paid to Mr. Reynolds; and the sums to divers other persons in that year amounted to £4231:8s. 3d.; that the receipts for harbour duties for the year preceding did not amount to more than £18:1s. 11d. The average expenditures for keeping in repair the harbour and piers for ten years from 1785 to 1795, amounted to £229:17s. 7d. and the average of the receipts of the bailiffs and burgesses in the same period, to £289:17s. 9d. in each year.

CORONERS.

That to prevent any dispute which for the future may arise on account of taking any inquisition on any person dying in the county gaol—ORDERED, That the sum of 5s. shall be allowed the Coroner for every inquisition, and no more.—Mich. Sess. 1761.

COUNTY BRIDGES.

Whereas, for want of cleansing and widening the river, which runs through Little Mohun's bridge, and below the same, the waters are obstructed, and overflow the King's common highway adjoining to the said bridge—ORDERED, That the Clerk of the Peace do forthwith give notice to the occupiers of lands adjoining to the said river, that in case the same is not sufficiently cleansed and widened, so as to prevent any future obstruction, within ten days from henceforth, they are to be prosecuted for such nuisance.—Adj. Mic. Sess. 1766.

HAYWARD BRIDGE.

ORDERED, That John Saintlo, Esq. one of the feoffees, produce his account at next sessions, relating to Lady Hayward's charity, for repairing the bridge.—That Richard Kaines, Allen Ford, Mark Grey, William Fry, John Andrews, Martha Vincent, widow, and the other tenants, are to attend at next sessions. That Richard Bingham, Esq. be desired to permit the agents of Shillingston, (in case he has any deeds relating to the donation) to inspect the same.—Blandford Sess. 1734.

On reading the above order, and a copy of a decree of the Commissioners of charitable uses, dated 6 Sept. 1600, 42 Eliz., and also examining witnesses on oath—ORDERED, That the feoffees of the bridge, called Hayward bridge, are to and do amend the highway adjoining to the said bridge leading to Shillingston and Sturminster Newton, as far as the western end of the present hole or puxy there. That Mr. Saintlo's account be referred to Mr. Martin, Mr. Freke, sen. and Mr. Bower, for the time he has acted as one of the feoffees, who are desired to settle the same, and the arrears now due, and to make their report next sessions.—That the Churchwardens of Shillingston and Child Okeford are to have copies of such accounts, and to be heard against the same.—That the referees are to measure the ground that is now to be repaired, and to fix a post at the end thereof for future memory.—That the money in Mr. Saintlo's hands, and the arrears now due from the several tenants of the lands, be applied by Mr. Saintlo, and the other feoffees, immediately, in repairing the said bridge and highway adjoining: and that the referees are to make their report of the whole at the next sessions.—Sherborne Sess. 1735.

The report of the three Justices being received and read —ORDERED, That the same be confirmed; and the balance in the tenants' hands to be paid forthwith to the feoffees of Hayward Bridge, and by them to be applied pursuant to the direction of the last order. That an arch be forthwith built for the better conveying the water in the place where the horse bridge stood. That the highway next adjoining to the said bridge, and mentioned in the last order, be better repaired, and that such highway, from the west end of such bridge to the present puxy, contains 22 lugs of 16 feet and half to the lug; and that a stone at the end thereof be fixed, with an inscription thereon, directing that the feoffees of the said bridge are to amend the highway so far. That the said bridge be forthwith put in good repair by the feoffees.—Shaston Sess. 1735.

That the feoffees of the bridge, called Hayward bridge, do produce their accounts at the next session of the peace, to be held at Blandford Forum in this county, relating to Lady Hayward's charity, and that a copy of this order be served on Mr. Ridout, the steward to the feoffees.—Bridport Sess. 1813.

That the Clerk of the Peace do prepare a case, and lay the same before Mr. Serjeant Lens, for his opinion respecting Hayward bridge.—Easter Sess. 1815.

That the case concerning Hayward bridge, and Mr. Serjeant Lens's opinion thereon, be entered in the records of the county.—Mich. Sess. 1815.

The Eastern Treasurer having reported unto this Court, that an indictment was preferred at the last assizes, against the county, on account of Hayward bridge being out of repair,—ORDERED, that the said treasurer do prepare a special plea, stating that the trustees of Lady Hayward's charity are bound to repair, and that he take the necessary professional steps thereon.—Mich. Sess. 1815.

At the Lent Assizes, 1815, an indictment was preferred against the county for not repairing this bridge. The trial came on at the Summer Assizes, 1817, when a verdict was given for the crown. It appeared on this trial that the said bridge was an ancient bridge, and that John and Robert Eschelling, or St. Vivonia Eschelling, lady of the manor, gave certain lands, (not named,) situate, lying, and being within the parish of Okeford Shilling, alias Shillingston, and Child Okeford, to certain feoffees or trustees therein named, their heirs and successors, upon trust, and for the purpose of laying out and expending the annual rents in the repairs of this bridge, and a certain part of the road and highway at each end thereof. That feoffees had been appointed, and continued to that time, who had received the rents and profits, and expended the same in and about the repairs of the said bridge and road, until about the year 1815, when, after some high floods, the bridge was damaged, and the roads at each end thereof washed away; and the amount of the money in the hands of the feoffees being about £100, was inadequate to the repair thereof, and they offered to pay over this sum to the magistrates of the county in aid of the repairs, but the magistrates refused, not thinking themselves justified in accepting it, until it should be determined in a court of law.

The then feoffees were the Right Hon. Georg Lord Rivers, Edward Berkeley Portman, Thomas Bowyer Bower, Henry Seymer, Edmund Morton Pleydell, Richard Bingham, William Trenchard, and Lawrence Edward St. Lo, Esquires.

The steward of the feoffees (Mr. Septimus Smith, of Blandford) has in his possession the several deeds, books, and other documents belonging to this charity: but the original grant from John and Robert Eschelling cannot be found. He has also the inquisition of the commissioners appointed under the Act 39 Eliz. c. 6, taken 6th Sept. 1500 (42d Eliz.) and a copy of the decree thereon. Also, the book of account, in which the expenditure of the rents appear, and the repairs done by the respective tenants and others, who were always paid by the steward. In addition to the lands which at the time of the trial were occupied by William Melmoth, there are four or five cottages with gardens, close to a place called Bere Marsh, and near to the said bridge, which are held under the trustees at about £3 or £4 per annum each, making a rental altogether of about £35.

Order of Proceeding :

1.—The Court will proceed with the business of the Sessions in the following order :—

1st.—Motions.

2nd.—Appeals.

3rd.—Misdemeanors which have been Traversed.

4th.—Other Misdemeanors, where the party is not in Custody.

5th.—To deliver the Prison.

But when two Courts are opened for the dispatch of the business, the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions shall make such an arrangement, and appoint such portion thereof, to be disposed of in the second Court, as may best suit the general convenience.

APPEALS.

2.—IT IS ORDERED, That the appealing Party, by himself, or his attorney, shall personally serve or deliver, at the usual place of residence of one, at least, of the Parish Officers, or to the party against whom any appeal is intended to be made, a written notice of the intention of trying such Appeal, at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, on or before the Monday in the week next before the week in which such Sessions shall take place (save and except where a certain time is limited by Act of Parliament,) and shall, if required so to do, prove the service or delivery of the notice, on the hearing of the Appeal.

3.—That all Appeals (except those for respite and adjournment) shall be entered with the Clerk of the Peace, on the first day of the Sessions, by eight o'clock at night; and that all applications for the entry and respite of Appeals, be made by motion of Counsel.

4.—That in all Cases where an Appeal against an Order of Removal shall have been entered and respited, a copy of the Order of Court, directing such entry and respite, or a notice containing the substance thereof, shall be personally served or delivered at the usual place of residence of one, at least, of the Parish Officers, or of the party or persons against whom such Appeal has been entered and respited, on or before the Monday previous to the week in which the ensuing Sessions shall take place; and that the personal service or delivery of such copy, or of such notice as aforesaid, shall be proved, (if required,) on the hearing of such respited Appeal, and no further notice of trying the said Appeal, shall be required on the part of the Appellants.

5.—That when a reasonable time for giving notice of Appeal has intervened between the confirmation of any Poor Rate and the Sessions next ensuing, no Appeal shall be entered for the purpose of being respited, except such special reasons be stated as shall prove satisfactory to the Court, or unless the consent of the party respondent to the proposed respite, be expressly stated in Court.

6.—That, where an Appeal has been entered, and the Parties Appellant and Respondent shall consent to adjourn the hearing of the merits till the next Sessions, no notice of trial shall be given or required; and the production of the record of such adjournment shall be sufficient evidence of the consent of both parties, who then may proceed to the trial of the Appeal; and that no further adjournment shall be allowed without special leave of the Court, on motion, and consent by Counsel.

7.—That all respited and adjourned Appeals be continued in the Minute Book of the proceedings, in the order of their original entry, and be called on for hearing accordingly. And when any Appeal shall be called on in the order in which it stands in the paper, if no person shall appear for either of the parties, and no cause shall be assigned for continuing the said Appeal, then the order for adjourning the hearing of the same shall be struck out of the paper.

8.—That when any Appeal shall have been entered and respited by the consent of the Court, and the Appellants shall, before the trial thereof, think fit to withdraw such Appeal, or the Respondents shall determine to quash their order, either party shall be empowered to do so, on giving to the other party six clear days' legal notice in writing, of such intention respectively; and no Costs of Suit shall, in such case, be paid on either side, excepting such costs as may have been necessarily incurred by the Respondents, subsequently to the service upon them of the order of entry and respite, and previously to the notice of withdrawing the Appeal; or by the Appellants, previously to the notice from the Respondents of quashing their order; the allowance of such cost being limited to 40s. unless upon special cause shewn to the satisfaction of the Court.

9.—That when a notice of Countermand of the Trial of an Appeal shall have been duly served, it shall not be necessary for the Respondent Party to attend at the next Sessions, but the Court will order the Appeal to be struck out of the paper, with an entry that it was abandoned.

10.—That when the Respondents shall have given due notice of their intention to quash their order, the Appellant may move to have the order quashed as a matter of course.

11.—That in all Appeals against Orders of Removal, the Appellant shall produce the Pauper, or in default of so doing, the Order appealed against shall be confirmed, unless some reasonable cause be shewn why the Appellants have not been able to produce the Pauper, in which case, the Court may, on motion of Counsel, adjourn the hearing of the Appeal; and the Court may, in any case, make such order with respect to the payment of the costs of the day, or such apportionment of the costs attendant upon the production of the Pauper at the trial, as they may deem reasonable under the circumstances of each particular case.

12.—That all Foreign Appeals shall be heard first, except under special circumstances, at the discretion of the Court.

13.—That in all Appeals against Orders of Removal, the Respondents shall begin with their proofs in support of their Order.

MOTIONS.

14.—IT IS ORDERED, That no application be heard by the Court, whether the same be for the entering, respiting, adjourning, or discharging, of any Appeal, or Order of Court, or respiting the proceedings on any Indictment or Presentment, or to continue or discharge any Recognizance, or for further punishment of persons convicted under the Vagrant Act, or upon any other subject in which the Court is called upon to make any Order, or pronounce any Judgment, unless the same be made by Counsel in open Court.

INDICTMENTS.

15.—IT IS PARTICULARLY RECOMMENDED, That all persons having Bills of Indictment to prefer, would attend with their witnesses, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace, with instructions for the same, or deliver the same already prepared, (if upon any special matter,) at his office, either on the first day of the Sessions, or early on the following morning, so that the Grand Jury may proceed to enquire thereon, immediately after the charge has been given by the Chairman. And to induce an early attention to their recommendation, all Indictments for Felony or Misdemeanors, where the Defendants are in custody, will be tried in the order in which they are found, and for that purpose the Foreman is requested to number each Bill as presented. The Court reserves to itself the power of refusing the Costs of Prosecutors when they have not attended on the first day, or on the opening of the Court on the second day of the Sessions, and do not shew satisfactory reasons for having omitted to do so. Provided always that the Court are not understood to preclude themselves from altering the order in which the cases shall be tried as they may think fit, on the ground of general convenience.

TRAVERSES.*

16.—Where a party has been held to Bail to appear and answer to any Indictment to be preferred against him, twenty days at the least, before the Sessions, at which such Indictment shall be found, or where an Indictment having been preferred and found at a previous Sessions, process therefore shall have been served upon the Defendant, twenty days at the least before the next Sessions, in both such cases the Defendant shall plead to such Indictment, and the trial thereupon shall proceed at the same Sessions.

But where a party shall not be held to Bail to appear twenty days at the least before the Sessions at which an Indictment is preferred and found against him, or, an Indictment having been found at a previous Sessions, process thereupon shall not have been served upon him twenty days, at the least, before the ensuing Sessions, such party shall be called upon to plead, and shall be intitled to Traverse, or put off the trial till the ensuing Sessions.

17.—Where any Defendant being intitled to his Traverse, shall appear and plead to an Indictment preferred against him, at the same Sessions at which such Indictment shall be found by the Grand Jury, he shall be at liberty to try such Indictment at the same Sessions, without giving any notice to the party prosecuting of his intention so to do. But where the Indictment shall have been found at a previous Sessions, and the party be intitled to his Traverse ; or in case of a voluntary appearance without process ; such party shall not be allowed to try, unless he shall have given notice of his intention so to do, to the Prosecutor or his Attorney, on or before the Monday in the week preceding the week in which the Sessions shall be held, and shall have left a duplicate of such notice at the office of the Clerk of the Peace four whole days, at the least, before the first day of such Sessions.

* See 60 Geo. III. c. 4. s. 3. 5.

18.—Parties presented or Indicted for the Non-Repair of any Bridge, or Highway, shall be at liberty to Traverse to the next Sessions, whether or not the process was served upon them twenty days or more, before their appearance.

HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES—INDICTED.

19.—IT IS ORDERED, That whenever the Inhabitants of any Parish, Tithing, or Place, or any Party supposed to be chargeable, shall be presented or Indicted for not Repairing any Highway or Bridge, the Clerk of the Peace shall, within twenty days next after the first day of the Sessions at which such Presentment shall be made, or such Indictment be found, make out process to the proper Officers, to the intent that the parties Presented or Indicted, may enter into Recognizances for their appearance to plead to the same at the next following Sessions, at which Sessions they shall so appear and plead, or move the Court to respite their plea ; but that only one respite shall be allowed, unless the Court shall, on some special cause, duly shewn to their satisfaction, deem it expedient to grant a further respite.

20.—That if the party or parties Presented or Indicted shall plead guilty, or shall be convicted, the Court may impose such a Fine as they may deem sufficient, according to the justice of the case, or may require proof on oath of some competent person, of the sum necessary to put into complete Repair the Highway or Bridge so Indicted or Presented, and impose such sum as shall be so proved by way of Fine, and in both cases, cause process to be issued for levying the same on the Inhabitants, Party, or Parties liable to such Repair, which Fine or sum so proved to be necessary, when levied, shall be paid into the hands of such person or persons as the Court shall think fit to appoint.

21.—That no Presentment or Indictment for Public Nuisances, respecting Highways or Bridges be discharged, until proof be made that such Highway or Bridge is in Repair, or that the nuisance has been removed, which proof shall be made in some one of the following ways, viz. :—

1st.—By Certificate of the Justice who has presented the same, if the proceeding be by Presentment.

2nd.—Where the proceeding is by the way of Indictment, in the case of Highways, by a Certificate under the hands of two Justices of the Division in which such Highway lies ; and in the case of Bridges, by a Certificate under the hand of one of the Justices of the Bridge Committee for that Division in which the Bridge is situated, countersigned by the Chairman of the General Bridge Committee.

3rd.—In the case of Highways, by the Certificate of one Justice, and the viva voce evidence of one witness.

4th.—In the case of Presentments and Indictments of Highways, and Bridges by the viva voce of two witnesses, provided that due and satisfactory proof be offered, that notice in writing has been given eight clear days before the Sessions, to all Justices acting or residing in the Division wherein such Highway or Bridge may be situated, requesting them to view the same.

22.—That in all the before-mentioned cases, proof shall be made, that four clear days' Notice in Writing has been given to the Prosecutor of such Presentment or Indictment, as well of the time appointed for viewing the Highway or Bridge, for the purpose of obtaining such certificate, as of the intention to move the Court to discharge such Presentment or Indictment, upon the production of such certificate, to the intent that the Prosecutor may object to, or shew cause against, the discharge of such Presentment or Indictment.

23.—That in all cases, the Certificate shall state, that the Highway, Bridge, or Nuisance, has been actually viewed by the person or persons certifying, and that the same, at the time it was so viewed, was in Substantial Repair, and likely so to continue, or that the Nuisance complained of was then effectually abated and removed.

COUNTY BRIDGES, REPAIRS, &c.

24.—That whenever any alteration, repair, or improvement of any County Bridge shall be required, the expence

FRANCES TUCKER, spinster, by will, dated 8 Dec. 1682, gave that part of her farm called North Mapperton Farm, in Mapperton and Beaminster, for ever, as follows, viz.—for the maintenance of a schoolmaster, successively to be chosen by her executors, or the major part of them, £20 ⁷/₈ annum for ever ; which schoolmaster was to have twenty of the poorest boys of Beaminster committed to his charge : —Also, £30 a-year for ever, to be employed for the binding out poor apprentices to some honest calling, three or four of the said boys yearly, as far as the money would reach, one whereof at least, if not two, to be sent to sea,

* They consist of three houses at Dorchester, the like number in Bridport, a dwelling-house and several small parcels of land in Up-Loders, and divers small pieces of ground in this parish. The whole of this property seems to have belonged to the Fraternity or Brotherhood of the Holy Cross and St. Christopher, in the church of Netherbury. On the passing of the Act 1 Edw. 6, for the dissolution of the Chantries, &c. there was much opposition in the House of Commons respecting that part of the bill which vested in the Crown the lands belonging to Guilds and Fraternities ; but those who managed that House for the Court, took off the opposition by an assurance that the Guild lands should be restored : and Burnet informs us that that assurance was made good by the Protector.—Hist. Reform. v. 2, p. 46. In all probability these lands, now vested in feoffees, for the use of the parish, escaped being seized in consequence of this assurance. There is express evidence that a part at least belonged to the fraternity, which would have been taken away by the said statute had not the favor of those in power interposed.

COUNTY PAUPER LUNATIC ASYLUM, at FORSTON, in the Parish of CHARMINSTER.

In the year 1827, FRANCIS JOHN BROWNE, Esquire, of Frampton, offered to make over to the County, as a voluntary Donation, his Mansion-house, Garden, and Lands, amounting to about seven acres, at Forston, for the Establishment of a Lunatic Asylum, for the benefit of Pauper Lunatics belonging to the several Parishes within the County; and also the sum of £4000, 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ Cent. Consol Ann. towards the endowment thereof.

This munificent offer was gratefully accepted at the Epiphany Sessions, 1828, and steps were immediately taken, under statute 48 Geo. 3, c. 96, then in force, and afterwards under statute 9 Geo. 4, c. 40, which repealed the former statute, for carrying Mr. Browne's intentions into effect.

A private Act of Parliament was afterwards procured, at the further expense of Mr. Browne, which received the Royal Assent on the 21st of March, 1828, for the purpose of securing this donation to the uses proposed; and to avoid any difficulties which might arise from the statutes of mortmain.

It was found necessary to make considerable additions to the house and premises at Forston, in order to render them suitable for the reception of patients: and these additions, and the enclosures for the separation and accommodation of the patients, together with the necessary furniture and fittings of all kinds, have cost something less than £14,000, of which sum above £3000 sterling was raised by voluntary subscriptions, and the rest by special County Rates, ordered from time to time, and by loans payable by instalments, under the provisions of the above-mentioned statutes.		£. s. d.

All the expenses attending the maintenance, care, and clothing, of the patients, and the wages and subsistence of the officers and servants, are borne by the weekly rate charged on the respective parishes to which the paupers belong. aided, as to the salaries of the officers, by the dividends arising from the donation of Mr. Browne towards the endowment of the asylum. Repairs and other expenses are borne by the county. A fund has also been created, by legacies and voluntary donations, which is applied towards extraordinary and contingent expences.
The asylum was opened for the reception of patients on the 1st August, 1832. It is calculated to contain about 35 male, and 30 female patients.
It is superintended and governed by visitors appointed by the Justices in Sessions, who must themselves be acting justices of the peace, and who have framed a set of Rules and Regulations for its management.
The officers and servants, consisting of a Medical Superintendent , a Matron , and as many Keepers and Nurses as may be thought necessary from time to time, are appointed by the visitors.
The present Medical Superintendent is Mr. GEO. WALLETT, whose salary, fixed by the visitors, is £140 per annum .
The present Matron is Mrs. FRANCES WHITE PARSONS. Her salary is £50 per annum .
The superintendent and matron reside constantly at the asylum. The Treasurer, ROBERT PATTISON, Esq. is also appointed by the visitors.
The Chaplain is appointed by the Justices in Sessions. The present Chaplain is the Rev. DACRE CLEMETSON. His salary of £50 per annum is paid by the county.
The present Clerk to the Visitors is Mr. THOMAS FOOKS, the Clerk of the Peace for the county, who receives an additional salary of £25, for his trouble, which is paid by the county.
